

ABSTRACT. We give a counterexample to the conjecture that the automorphisms of an arbitrary Arveson system act transitively on its normalized units.